

St. Matthew's Scavenger Hunt
September 20, 2020

Name(s) _____

Email Address _____

_____ 1. Jesus is considered the "cornerstone" of our Church as it says in Psalm 118 verse 22, "The same stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone."
Can you find St. Matthew's cornerstone?

_____ 2. The term "being as poor as a church mouse" dates back to 1731 from our English roots. Can you find St. Matthew's church mouse?

_____ 3. Where is the main entrance to the De Sabla Land Grant?

_____ 4. I wonder where you can find "Light and Charity" among all the stacks of chaos?

_____ 5. Most likely The Three Wiseman rode on Arabian horses and not camels to find baby Jesus but many us may not know that! Can you find a camel riding through the streets of San Mateo?

_____ 6. The Oldest Bank in San Mateo went under a different name and the bank's original motherland would have had a different currency. What was the original name of Bank?

What year was it established in San Mateo?

What would the original currency of the bank have been?

_____ 7. You certainly don't want to be late for a very important date! Can you find the man with the stop watch?

_____ 8. Marmalade was first developed using oranges in England sometime in the 16th Century. Who knew that it grew on trees! I wonder if you can find a Marmalade tree?

_____ 9. Oh no, a very tall giraffe has escaped from the savannah areas in Africa! Can you find it?

_____ 10. Charles Darwin believed in evolution and Shakespeare once said, "A rose by any other name". Can you find how these two ideas can be blended together?

_____ 11. Gardens don't always need to be horizontal. Can you find a vertical one?

_____ 12. A cobbler's work is never done. Can you find a cobbler that works overtime?

_____ 13. California's Brown Bear is found on our flag. Can you find one among all the nuts and bolts?

_____ 14. Wishing wells developed because water was a scare commodity and people would throw coins into the local well, wishing for water. Can you find a wishing well at a nearby neighboring church?

_____ 15. Francis of Assisi was a friar from the 13th century, who gave up his Italian noble background to serve those in need. St. Francis is celebrated on October 4th. Can you find our St. Francis statue?
